

Retired Membership Application

Anyone who was an active member of PASS may apply to become a retired member after retirement from the federal government. Retired members shall be entitled to all privileges and benefits of membership, except for attending closed meetings, voting and holding office. Continue to support PASS's efforts on behalf of FAA employees while you enjoy your retirement!

Download application.